About the Authors

Anthony Bernier, PhD, is professor at the nation's largest library school, California's San Jose State University School of Information, where he teaches the Introduction to Young Adult Services course each term and an annual course in youth services research methods. As a critical youth studies scholar, Dr. Bernier's primary field of research explores the administration of equitable library services with young adults.

Shari Lee, PhD, is associate professor at St. John's University, Division of Library and Information Science and the Youth Services Program advisor since 2010. Her research explores the notion of social control in the built environment, with specific focus and its applicability to public library teen spaces. Dr. Lee teaches eight youth services courses, including Popular Culture and Young Adults and Teen Spaces, which she designed and has been teaching for more than a decade.

Praise for the Book

"Young Adult Library Services: Challenges and Opportunities brings together the wisdom and experience of many of the best voices in young adult librarianship offering advice and solutions to those serving today's youth in libraries." — RoseMary Ludt, Former editor of VOYA Magazine

"Eye-opening, thought-provoking, and wide-ranging in the amount of essential content covered! This text links history with current practice in ways that matter, gives entry points for newbies and is important reading for veteran YA professionals as well." — Dr. Cindy Welch, formerly Clinical Professor and Coordinator of Youth Services, School of Information Sciences, University of Tennessee
